

BLOOD PEOPLE

Menacing Rock Hooks That Give Voluptuous Pop Looks...

"Blood People is a band that is ready to have a big year in 2017"

-James VanOsdol 101.1 WKQX

Blood People is a female fronted 4-piece heavy punk rock band from Chicago, Illinois. This DIY outfit congealed of battle-scarred musicians had a strong debut in 2016, releasing their self-titled EP and playing shows in every corner of the city, opening for local pop punk heroes AM Taxi and main support for acclaimed 80s J-pop band Shonen Knife. Raw, grungy, sleazy and in-your-face are just a few things Blood People have been described as. Think the Distillers meets Nirvana.

Formed in January 2016, Blood People is:

Aly Jados (Vocals/Guitar)

Jeff Loehrke (Guitar/Vocals)

Mickey Molinari (Drums/Menace)

Norm Burns (Bass/Vocals)

In their Self Titled EP, Blood People feature hard hitting melodies that swirl with the tenacity of a rock and roll hurricane!

Track List :

Last One Standing (2:52)

Mirror Mirror (3:14)

Clowns (4:14)

Burn the Ships (3:21)

PROPAGANDHI

@propagandhi

i was like what if Joan Jett was in Baroness? and then a dude from this band was all like bro way ahead of you

Blood People are starting out 2017 with an upcoming feature in Alternative Press magazine along with some new recordings for a full length and a music video for their single "Last One Standing"
