

BLOOD PEOPLE

FEATURED ARTICLES

1. Interview: Blood People talk forgetting common words, new music and coming up in Chicago – The Spectrum, Laura Ellen Brandjord
2. ‘Raw, Loud, Noisy’ – Aly Jados of Blood People talks ‘Great Reactor’ – Rebellious Magazine, Laurie Fanelli
3. Blood People – Jaded in Chicago, Bill Denker
4. Blood People talk being ‘loving and scary’ and using witchcraft to play Riot Fest – Jessi Roti, Chicago Tribune
5. New music from Chicago’s own Blood People – Lauren O’Neil, 101.1 WKQX

PRESS QUOTES

1. “People are vulnerable, so you need to empower yourself and think for yourself. Human beings, they’re so complex. There are masks people wear for different reasons, I think we’re all guilty of that. And with that come so many different perspectives. I want to touch on that...” – Aly Jados, Lead Singer and Guitarist, Chicago Tribune
2. “New Music from Chicago’s Own Blood People” – 101 WKQX
3. “We play pretty often in Chicago, so be on the lookout,” said Jados. “We’re all always excited to play. We would play every day if we could. We’re kind of like balled-up animals, and you unleash when you have us on stage.” – Aly Jados, Lead Singer and Guitarist, Rebellious Magazine
4. “And there are a lot of cool places to play. So, I think having more bands in a city means there’s more shows, more opportunities to play...I don’t know, more fun...” – Aly Jados, Lead Singer and Guitarist, The Spectrum
5. “Blood People Premieres New EP, ‘Great Reactor’” – The Bad Copy
6. “There’s so many amazing live bands that we all love going to see. I just love going to a show and seeing amazing energy. When we get to perform, we want to put all of ourselves into it no matter what. No matter how many people are there and just put on a show and not be boring or lifeless.” – Jeff Loehrke, Guitar, Jaded in Chicago